Category: Beverage

Item Type: Teas

Product Information

Jasmine tea is the oldest known scented tea, and Numi's begins its life in the gardens of Hunan Province, China. The rich soil and fluctuations in daily temperature in this region yield a fragrant leaf, over which organic jasmine flowers are laid until their scent is absorbed by the tea. Scented three times, this smooth green tea has layers of subtle fragrance and hints of moonlight.

Celebrating People

The Numi tea'm is committed to sourcing directly from fair trade gardens where equitable wages allow families to thrive. Numi's Jasmine Green tea is sourced from the first Fair Trade gardens in China, where workers' wages have increased 30-40% and premiums recently funded a school dormitory for children.

Celebrating Planet

Through thoughtful choices, Numi is committed to reducing its impact on the planet. Unlike produce and food, tea is not rinsed during processing, leaving any pesticides and chemicals to steep directly into your cup. Organic tea ensures a healthy, uncontaminated brew. Numi also uses backyard-compostable tea bags as opposed to GMO-sourced PLA corn or nylon teabags.

Celebrating Pure Tea
